I have a Male Purebred Beagle that I need to find a new home for. I broke up with my girlfriend & after I got a new job. My new job has me away from home sun up to sun down. My ex didnt have a job & since she's gone now he is stuck in a cage for 12+ hours a day. I love him but I know he's sad & lonely. I wouldn't want to be stuck in a cage all day either if I was him.

He is 5 years old. His birthday is 12-25-10. He was a Christmas puppy! I didnt get him as a lil guy though. I adopted him when was 2. He gets a littke scared sometimes still & wants to be held & it always seems he likes when he feels safe. Hes a gentle soul. He gets along with every other dog he has ever been around, cats too. He absolutely loves children of every age.

He's not fixed. He is up to date on his shots & is on heartworm prevtion as well as flea & tick prevention. His rehoming fee is $150. He does come with his collar &.
