My name is Jeff, I am not a good musician, I have been playing guitar and studying music for about 38 years. I know more than I used to, but I don't as much as I will. I would like to kick back and jam and try to write something. I get into a much diversified range of music. I do like blues rock, classic rock. For some reason I have been getting into a kind of Jazz thing. This is me playing all tracks (except for drum loops) anyway, if anyone wants to jam, 420 friendly, love to party, love to jam.
