Architectural splendor! Striking contemporary nestled on a one acre park setting with rolling terrain and much natural beauty. This amazing house presents beautiful angles with walls of glass affording views from all rooms and bringing the outside in. Being a very open floor plan offers a lot of flexibility within the Great Room with two feature walls of stone and a gas fireplace with a conversation area. The dining room features two walls of glass and a built in buffet shelf. Great space in the updated kitchen with granite counters, a center island, gas cook top, oven/microwave/warming drawer built in and under counter wine refrigerator plus eating area overlooking the patio. All bedrooms and two full updated baths are on the second floor with an awesome master suite including two walk in closets and an updated bath with double sinks and a custom tile shower. There is also a sitting room/office off the master suite. There is a recreation room, plus a play room and plenty of storage in the finished walk-out lower level. The Piece de 'resistance is the 41x26 gallery currently used as a playroom/family room but the previous owner used it as an art gallery. Upgrades and improvements included in broker's remarks.
