My goofy dog who I've had for 2 years unfortunately needs a home where she's the only "dog." Gets a long with any animal, we've had horses, pigs, cats, ducks and she does fine with all of them besides other bigger dogs. It seems from what I've seen is she annoys other dogs maybe by her uncontrollable legs or the fact she constantly want to play fight or steal the fetching stick. She is an amazing dog by her self, long, lean, and lanky. She is all bout smiling (her grr face not to be mistakin for hostile but she likes to show her teeth when excited, def. A guilty dog if you've ever seen the kind) tails always wagging and shes always sneezing with excitement when you get home.. literally.. I love this dog to death and sorry to see her go but it's.
