We are a licensed Salvage dealer located at 5000 Chamberlayne ave.

A+ rated at the BBB

Ever wonder why the other guys do not post a bussiness address, hmmm?
Where will you find them when you have future DMV or property tax issues or your licensed is suspended?

We daily update the # of vehicles we recycle, we are not afraid to be scrutinized by DMV and the IRS

The other guys "CLAIM" to be the kings or the biggest or the most reputable, check us and them out at the BBB.

If you pay $1000 cash and they say "oh all they want is $1000 what the fuck do I care?" what if they take, others promise one price on the phone and when they arrive they play the beatdown game hoping you will sell it for less than their frustration. Some say we DO NOT pay upon pickup we pay AFTER. In the car crusher game, MR. CASH PAYS CASH ON THE SPOT then and there, do you really believe they are going to bring your money back? Other way we pay up to a $1000 and other says he pays $1500. for a junk car does any one really believe that? If that were true we would sell them our cars. Other claim they do not even need keys or a title, does that sound legitimate, do not ask me call the DMV and ask for the Dealer division and find out for yourself. You can ask DMV if the person you're selling your car is really a licensed
