Are you an aspiring writer looking for an opportunity to work as an album reviewer for an established music website? If so, look no further, because mxdown is just for you. Currently, we are looking for an album reviewer who would specialize in Electronica albums.

mxdown is a daily music magazine dedicated to covering a diverse selection of musical content. Our album reviewers are assigned about five articles per month and will be expected to be consistent and adherent to deadlines. We are looking for enthusiastic people who are savvy within the many subgenres of electronic music and passionate about writing.

Please note that this is an unpaid position.

If you are interested in contributing to the world of music journalism, please contact David - one of our senior editors - by replying to this posting through.
