We are producing a calendar full of strong, beautiful women who have worked hard to get to where they are. No matter how successful someone has become we all enjoy seeing and showing the pleasing aesthetics of the human body. We are hoping this becomes a project about empowerment as much as it is a piece of attractive work. We will be selling the calendar online through various art gallery websites and will be using the funds from the project to donate to a local shelter.

Please send pics such as in business attire or professional wear as well as lingerie and full nude pics in your reply. Include your first name, age, and why you want to be in this calendar as well as the best way to reach you. We will call in applicants as we receive.
