

College student looking for weekend babysitting (East Renton highlands)

Location Washington https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-436519-z

My name is Alyssa. I'm a college student working towards my transfer degree in early childhood education. I'm looking for some babysitting jobs. I can do weekdays but will have to discuss with you about my hours, since I'm in college still taking classes. I've babysat and nannied for other families (military families mostly, but civilian too) I charge $10 an hour. Looking for around my area in Renton or close by, since gas prices are pretty pricey. But willing to drive depending on money wise. I'm honest, trustworthy, respectful and shy, kind person. I have most experience working with children ages 10 months up to 2 years old. So toddlers and young toddlers. Please email me if want to discuss more. Thank you!:)
