My name is Alyssa. I'm a college student working towards my transfer degree in early childhood education. I'm looking for some babysitting jobs. I can do weekdays but will have to discuss with you about my hours, since I'm in college still taking classes and currently a babysitter in afternoons/evenings. I've babysat and nannied for other families (military families mostly, but civilian too) I charge $10 an hour. Looking for around my area in Renton or close by, since gas prices are pretty pricey. But willing to drive depending on money wise. I'm honest, trustworthy, respectful, shy, and a kind person. I have most experience working with children ages 10 months up to 2 years old. So toddlers and young toddlers. Please email me if want! :)
