College students! Communications majors.

Want some hands-on experience to add to your resume?

We have an opening for an intern interested in taking part in the production of the award winning cable variety show, An Hour With Bob. We tape alternate Monday evenings. Arrive at our Pawtucket studio at 6:00 pm to setup for our 7:30pm - 8:30 pm show. We are finished by 9:00pm. We go out together for something to eat after the show.

The winner of the 2011 and the 2012 PEG AWARD for excellence as the Best Local Cable Variety Show Host. (Bob Venturini)
An Hour With Bob is also recognized as New England's longest running variety show (Since 1992)

Join our crew!

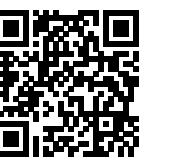

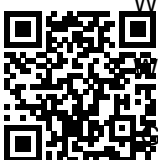

Work on Camera -- Sound tech - Editing - Character Generator - Directing - Lighting - Set Design.

An hour with Bob. Join the fun, you will meet many interesting people and learn hands-on television production that will look great on your resume and put you well ahead of your classmates.

Do you like editing? I have some good raw footage of segments in and around RI, ready to be coded for Bob's Adventures and for Zachary's Adventure
