So many hostile responses, so many offended and butt hurt.

Could it be that these angry conservative responders are the same people the study was referring to? The people that actually are attracted to the same sex, the ones that relate to homosexuals but have to suppress their true sexual orientations because their families peers and church would literally stop loving them for who they really are? Could these 4-5 responders be angry about their shitty predicament and take it out on EVERYONE in an over combative and aggressive supposed hatred of all that reminds them of themselves? Wow, this is all so fascinating AND HILARIOUS!

Keep up the impressive array of fag talk, just to convince us or yourselves that you aren't gay? Just curious. Since you absolutely 100% insist on focusing on one topic and one topic only, I shall oblige. Let's not talk about anything other than fag talk.

Let's talk about how your extreme aversion to homosexuality actually does prove you are in fact, FAGS, too cowardly to admit it to yourselves or the world. Its why you overcompensate to convince the world you aren't, but we know better now, don't we? Please, by all means respond with more gay erotica talk and we can dig deeper into your secret desires..

Open up for more of that warm creamy gooey fascist FauxNews and AM radio splooge, gorge on it, vomit it back out and repeat! BUUUUURP!

EAT IT!
