I'am a single man, 59 although I feel 25, I am looking for a home that will let me and my two beautiful dogs this is the ONLY baggage I have (Think about it Lady's) to live in. I am a Jack of all trades, Master of none as they say, Meaning I did not go to school to get a diploma, That's really is because I really did not need to, I can do it all, Electrical, Pluming, Carpentry, Drywall, Remodeling, Yard work, Landscaping work, Mechanic, Mechanical, You name it , And you will not have to pay those crazy high prices all company's are now asking for. I'am sure you know what I mean! And last but not least, Cooking. I can do it all, Lady's

So now ask yourself lady's, Do you need someone to help you out, To keep up the maintenance on your house of all the things above, Don't forget about snow removal

I ask in return that I have a place to take care of and live in, In fact a walk out basement to the back yard would be great How ever anything is fine.

Please call and at least talk to see what we can come up with

P.S. I would like to tell you that I went though a hard divorce /witch if you want to know more I will go over it later, I will say now that money changed her and not for the better!!

Again lady's I can make it easier for you, As I can use my knowledge in your place, in return a place to be in with my dogs (my babies) we can talk about money on the call, when and if you call O.K

P.S. I'am a nice looking guy (They tell me), 5'10" 190# NO POT BELLY/ Hazel/Green eyes /Brown hair. I do not drink ,smoke drugs. And if your looking for more then just friends we can talk there to. As I am free as of now and have been for awhile and do or do not need anyone at the moment .
