We encourage you as a customer to always call around for pricing, and if you have been told you need a repair to get a second and third opinion. We get a lot of customers who are told parts are broken or not working properly while they ARE NOT. I have NOT needed them replaced. I will provide a quote in the future if we ever give you our names. The prices that are honest and affordable.

Our honest statement is we can cure almost all of your car's problems. We don't charge about what's needed, and we do not up charge work that is not needed. Unlike some places, all parts installed are 100% brand new. We can even give you our old broken parts if wanted! We are an honest family owned establishment trying to provide our customers with the best experience possible without breaking the bank. We know repairs are never a good thing to hear!

Reliable Auto is here for your turning bad auto repair experiences into fabulous ones!
