Pickers and Treasure Hunters wanted

1st let me say, please don't email or call me, even to set an appointment or get directions, my shop hours are listed, just drop in and tell me you saw the ad and we'll just chat.

This would be very informal, to call it an interview might even be a stretch. Don't bother dressing in a suit and tie, not necessary in this line of work. No resume needed either, we'll just talk for a bit and we'll go from there.

Bottom line is, I have a shop and an online presence and enough of a customer base to move products, but sadly not enough time to find enough cool stuff and currently I'm a one man show with no real partners, help or employees.

If you pick for a living now or you've just seen shows like American Pickers, Storage Wars, Pawn Stars, Auction Hunters and so on and just thought it seemed like an interesting way to make a living (it is by the way) and just didn't know how to get started, then we might be a good match.
