Once in a life time opportunity for the right buyer. Property has been well maintained through out the years. Prior owner took great pride in the overall appearance of it. In addition to the house their is a arena, storage bldg., office/guest house, stable, loafing, kennels, and out door arenas. The house has many unique features and was built with the upmost quality and workmanship. The guest house/office could be lived in year round. It has everything one would need to comfortable. The out buildings are as clean as new ones. The arena has overhead lighting and is connected to the stable. The stable could house approximately 12 horses. Overhead doors in all buildings. Most are cemented out, except for the arena area which is dirt floor. Lots of features on these buildings that only you can see to believe!! Come take a look at this exceptional property!!!
