Hayy All. I'm looking for a room mate in grand island. I work there full time as a nurse aid and driving back and forth is getting really enjoying lol 60 miles a day..... anywase I'm a fun girl. Love to laugh and joke around. I have a huge sense of humor. I do drink socially on my weekends off. Like to bbq and enjoy time out in the sun. I'm not a slob I pick up after myself and am a clean person. I like to have friends over hangout enjoy life. My shift that I work is 2 to 1030 so I'm a bit of a night owl but not all nighter lol I Just like to have a good time and enjoy life hoping to find a room mate who is the same maybe we can get drinks together have a night on the town:) Looking for someone who either has a place or is wanting to get a place with me. If interested please email me:)
