I am a lead singer who also plays keys, in my 50s looking for a cover band or duo with guitarist. I have a pretty wide range but not stratospheric (think Rush or Journey) and I am not a screamer (think Buckcherry or AC/DC). I have a smooth, lyric voice (think Foo Fighters, Tom Petty, Lynyrd Skynyrd, The Doors, Pink Floyd, etc.).

I live in Andover, MA and I am willing to travel up to an hour for the right fit. I already play in a band in Exeter that books once a month and I am looking to play out more so once or twice a month would be fine with me.

I am a singer first and a keyboard player second so I'm really looking for a lead singing gig and if keys are a part of that so be it.

I don't mind emails or text but if you want to chat give me a call

Thanks and I look forward to hearing from.
