Just reduced! Looking for a mountain view? This lot offers just over 1/2 acre of land and two homes with a mountain view from your front porch! If that isn't enough, how about a waterfall right down the road? One of the homes has some renovations within the last 1 1/2 years including a new wood stove, but is in need of more upgrades and renovations to complete. The second home would need to be gutted and totally rehabbed or could be torn down to increase the amount of open space. There is an additional shed on the property as well as a large attached barn to the home. Property being sold "as is". For the price this is a "must see" property!
