I am a musician, 25, looking for a female singer/songwriter for collaborative work writing and performing original songs and covers. Ability to play an instrument is a plus, but not necessarily required.

I am a multi-instrumentalist: piano, guitar, bass, mandolin, ocarina, sitar, and learning a few others. I sing too, but I'm not a real technical vocalist.

My influences are mostly classic rock- Beatles, Billy Joel, Warren Zevon, Tom Waits, Paul Simon, Elton John, etc.- but I am also a fan of classical, folk, Hindustani, old country, R&B... pretty much a little of everything.

I also don't want to sound "age-ist", but I'm mainly interested in musicians around my own age, ~18-27. I've worked with older musicians, but they seem to have too much else going on to be actually committed to creating music.
