DUI Attorney-Name Your Price Policy

Our law firm represents clients in all types of traffic court/municipal court matters. However, it is important to be represented by the RIGHT firm when you are charged with a DUI. The potential consequences of a DUI conviction are: loss of license, fines, dmV surcharges, community service, and possible time in jail!!!

After a retainer agreement is signed, we immediately write a letter to the prosecutor requesting discovery. The prosecutor is required by law to share any evidence that he or she plans on using to prosecute your case. The prosecutor must prove that the equipment was in proper working order, the operator was qualified, and the test was given correctly. Can the prosecutor even prove that there was ample probable cause to even take a breathalyzer test? These are only a few of the possible defenses that this firm uses to defend clients against DUI charges.

We are the only law firm in New Jersey with the "Name Your Price Policy". Call Jamie today at to schedule your free consultation.
