Hello I am looking for a FULL TIME jack of all trades to repair or dismantle Mercedes, BMW and some random vehicle makes, you must be Mechanically inclined, be able to organize parts and post parts on sites to sell.

severe discount on parts for your own car

We generally work with cars from 2005 down to classic cars into the 60's looking for someone that is patient, able to think for themselves, willing to learn if need be but i cant hold your hand through every task experience with German cars is preferred

Own tools are preferred but not necessary

-parts need to marked and organized in bins I.E. e39 interior parts etc

- post parts for sale
