I'm a disabled single mother looking for a therapy puppy to be med dog. We are animal lovers and please know that this puppy will be a family member and treated as such. My landlord has given me stipulations. No bully breeds or rott's, chow's or doberman's. It has to be 40 lbs or less as an adult! We also have cats that have been raised around puppies and dogs. Our pets are always well mannered and very healthy! The money I have goes for vetting. Also we have a cooler home so a med dsl coated breed will be comfortable,.will be an indoor dog but will have a lot of fun outside. I've always had Aussies, papillions and other mixed breeds so im very familiar with most dogs. Thank you please
