I am a former guitarist of 7 years now drummer of 2 years looking for a doom (funeral, stoner, blackened, etc) heavy psych, whathaveyou band to join or possibly put together. I have lots of dynamics but love nothing more than playing as heavy handed as I can. I live in Northgate, am mobile and can transport my drums. I have quality gear, looking for like minded gear heads.

Bands that are big influences: Monarch (FR), Yob, Conan, Profetus, Black Wreath, Ahab, Sleep, Black Sabbath, Neurosis, you get the picture.

I'm not the best but far from the worst. I know how to count and have a variety of pockets. Looking to smash my drums and smash them hard. School keeps me from touring outside of summer time but I am interested in something more than just casual jam sessions.

I rarely drink, have no drug or other serious issues, and really enjoy weed. All I ask is just don't be a dick and don't have any issues that prevent you from playing/being a capable person.

I have a couple demos I can send you if you have a couple demos you can send.
