I have an 8 month old male pitbull. I had originally written a super long ad then my phone froze and it got erased and at the moment I don't have the time to explain everything again. I am going to be EXTREMELY picky about choosing a family for him. He had a rough start to life and these past 3 months have been great for him. He receives atleast an hour of exercise a day. Almost daily trips to the dog park or play dates with my friends dogs. He loves other dogs I would LOVE to see him have a doggie sibling, male or female. I'd prefer him to go to a home with no kids. Either a single man or woman or a couple. I have a lot more to say about him and to ask any potential families. Please email or text and if your still interested we can talk on the phone or meet him in person. I am going to want to know where he will live and what kind of life you will give him and his dog trainer will be helping me find the most suitable home. He is extremely cuddly and loyal to his owner. He's smart and protective. His name is Gage. Call me for ore info
