Honda civic 2006 blue sedan LX for sale. Mileage approximately 106000+. selling because I am relocating out of country.

Car has some cosmetic issue for all these years and some minor defects. Not the most pretty car but mechanically no problems.

Tires set of 4 replaced at discount-tires two years ago usage of 16000 miles. it is a R17 low profile rims and tires. Still good with warranty. battery was last replaced in mid 2014 at autozone too with warranty. windows are tinted by previous owner. fluids are changed too. car is good to go anytime.

list of notable defects fuel cap door need to be opened manually from outside missing driver sun visor

price can be further negotiated.
