

Brand New Dark Walnut Bed Frame (300 USD)

Location Utah

I've only had this bed frame for 6 months, but I'm moving. The frame still has the tag on the head board. It's a great frame, but it's too big of a hassle to take it with me back to California. It is easy to take a part with a couple of screws and easy to transport in city. But I have too much else to move. First person with $300 gets the practically brand new frame.

Thanks!
