

Anyone relocating to Colorado or further east

Location Utah https://www.genclassifieds.com/x-441607-z

I've been searching for a good place to live in UT or CO, but no luck so far.

I might never find the kind of place I need, and I'd be happy to relocate and have a change of scenery.

If you're moving to CO or further east and need a good roommate, I'd be interested in discussing that.

I'm male, 52, smoker, non LDS. Honest and friendly.

I can't help cover moving costs but I can lend a hand helping you move.

Here's my SLC ad: http://saltlakecity.craigslist.org/sha/ html

If we seem compatible and you have the kind of home I'm looking for, please contact me asap.

I would only need a tiny bit of luggage space for my belongings. Just me, no pets in tow. I live on disability so I'm free to move anywhere I like. I do have a clean drivers license, if you need help moving a car, that's no problem. I don't have a vehicle at this time.
