hello! I am a single mom of 2, looking for a rental. I have a steady job, where i have been for 5 years. my credit is not the greatest due to a not so great divorce. I need atleast 2 bedrooms, but having 3 would be great! i am open to a lot of areas, except in the city of Wilmington. one of my kids will be in 2nd grade next year, so having a good school district is a must. we also have a dog, that is part of our family and my kids love dearly. he is a big dog, weighing 90 pounds. he's an English mastiff who is very very well behaved. if anyone is willing to give my family a chance and have any rentals, please let me know. since I am the only one providing for my kids, coming up with a security deposit may be hard, but if you are willing to work out monthly installments, ect. I would really appreciate any and all help or suggestions!!
