MzManhattan CEO of Manhatans Candy Empire offers business that is exotic, unique and professional. She takes pride in sexy professionalism. No one likes a sour model. M.C.E. models must know how to handle all situations as if the glass is half full. High Quality work, we strive to stand out among the rest by being creative and professional to make sure you are left with a sweet taste of business satisfaction. MzManhattan knows how to follow directions to get the job done and know when to take lead if no direction. There is not a project to big or small that can't be made delicious.

MzManhattan Professional promotional model is having a network casting call. She is looking to build a team of hard working, outgoing, exquisite business individuals. Positions available are as follows Promotional Models, Brand Ambassadors, Street Team, Dancers, and Entertainers. In addition to Photographers, PA (Personal Assistant), Make- up Artist, hair stylist and nail techs. If you have a business skill or talent and just need a strong business team to work with this is an event you want to attend.

Those entering for the casting will complete an application, take photos ( if needed), and be interviewed by my panel of judges. Manhatans' panel will consist of 3-4 business professionals that are in the business of entertainment as a business as well as the life style. This will insure that candidates know all the job duties and if they are fit for the positions. Please Note: Some will be a direct hire and others will be kept on file for an on call contract basis.
