My beloved gray-and-white "tuxedo tabby" cat has been missing for several months now, but I am not giving up!

Timothy Leadbelly is a very large, neutered, 8-year-old cat. From the sides or above, he looks gray with dark striping. But when viewed from the front, his white chin and white chest (or "bib") are visible. He also has white paws and a white stomach.

Distinctive features are:

-- pink nose

-- green eyes

-- large appetite (but prefers dry food to wet; doesn't care much about milk)

-- shyness; tends to be skittish around strangers -- but might respond to the sound of a rustling bag of dry-cat food or to the call "Fresssssssssh kitty crunchies, fresssssssssh crunchies!"

If seen, do NOT chase him. Instead, phone me with info on his whereabouts. Better yet, text me a PHOTO of a cat sighting.

WANTED OFFER: If this cat is returned to me, I will be able to reward the finder with $2000.00. I am looking for my cat in the 2600 block of Jones Road in Walnut Creek. He could be anywhere by now. I am looking for him in the neighborhood along the road to the California Cancer Center. I have searched everywhere, including my garage, storage unit, or adopted by someone who doesn't know that I've been searching for him for months now. (NOTE: Similar, but smaller tabby cats have been seen on Jones Road; in Carriage Place on Jones/Oak; in the Hampton's on Oak; in the Northwoods on Jones; on or near Cora and Cherry; and on or near Sunnyvale, Putnam and via del Sol, all in Walnut Creek)
