Hey,

We are an upcoming band that is looking for a female Keyboard player who has legit gear (Moog, Nordo, etc.) and can back me up on vocals, most of the parts are written already so all you have to do is show up look good and play fantastic. Pay will be based upon our live performances/gigs, work for hire studio work, and any money you want to invest in merch will earn you profits as well. That is until we get signed, in which contracts will be negotiated.

I have about 15 songs written, a video that is soon to be released, and aspirations to make this group huge.... commercially. Looking for our album to be released by July.

The reason I say female is because it is going to add to our commercial appeal. Were in it to win it and I hope you are to. Please email me your epk and or a brief summary of your self, musical experience and gear....

Look forward to hearing from you,
