I am selling a Ridgeway Grandfather Clock. It is in excellent working condition and looks beautiful. It is the YORK model (#2190). The clock is no longer listed/manufactured on the Ridgeway site. It has three changeable chimes and weights are finished in 24k gold. An absolutely wonderful clock.

The following information on this particular clock was pulled from the internet:

Chicory Oak finish on oak solids, oak and White Ash burl veneers
 Triple chime cable movement plays Westminster, Whittington and St Michael's chimes, with separate hour strike.
 Automatic night shut-off
 300 mm round dial has a white porcelain finish with black Roman numerals
 Brass bezel
 Weight shells are pewter finished with 24k gold wash bands
 Remote second hand
 Pendulum is a unique lyre dual vial faux mercury type within a brass circle.

Cabinet:

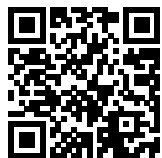

Federal pediment style has a white ash burl framed with ebony and maple veneers
 The solid hardwood carved design between the pediment and columns wraps around to each side of the clock

The oak and ebony finished turned columns are capped at the top and bottom with antiqued cast base finials

 The clock is framed with a hand-carved bell-shaped door
 The doors are beveled and glass, well
 The clock has access to the glass and Illuminated case

The break front base has 3 pieces of matching white ash burl, framed with ebony and maple veneers
 To complement the pediment
 Made by American craftsmen in Virginia
