Hello!

I am 23 yrs old and currently in between jobs. Before I start my new job I am looking to babysit/nanny for the time being! I am originally from Ohio and moved to CT a year ago. I am the oldest of 5 children, so I have experience with children of all ages. I have my own transportation and a very flexible schedule. I am interested in starting immediately and would possibly be available to continue services even after I've started my new job.

I can provide references upon request and any other information that you'd!
