Do you have things on your mind that you'd like to talk about, but no one that you can talk to? Things that you've always wanted to talk to someone about? Ideas, dreams, relationships, work, friends, aspirations, anything else tht is on your mind?

I am a young retired business professional, that is offering a service of talking and listening. This is a one-on-one service, where you can talk about whatever is on your mind. I will listen and not be judgmental.

Not everyone has a friend or family member that they can or want to talk openly to.

Many people feel so much better just having someone to talk to, that will really listen.

First meeting in a public place like a mall, a coffee shop, or another agreed upon location for a confidential discussion.

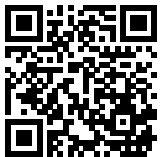

Can also combine talk with walking so you can benefit from exercise at the same time.

Reply with a little information, and lets see if this is something you would benefit.
