Hi there

Life happens and sometimes you are caught in an unfavorable situation. Nannies are expensive a times and sometimes just after money than care!

Im available:

I have reliable transport, great personality and enjoy being in the company of children! I can cook, clean and pretty much handy in the house! I'm of black ethnic background and im 20, moved out of home snd working towards a degree! I dont have any certifications but im not new at babysitting! I raised my little brother a few years ago and he's turning out great!

So if you need me just text me, set up an interview and i could help you out with that hectic schedule! I dont discriminate on race or disability so don't worry!
