He's over a year old, most likely 2 years old. My sister couldn't take care of him anymore. Would love to re-home him for a re-homing fee of $150. It's a reasonable price considering he comes with a 40 gallon tank, tank screen lid, basking light, night time red light, full spectrum light, green reptile carpet, under tank heater, food bowl, fake plant, decorative gator skull, wood log, aquarium log to hold up other log, hammock, misting bottle, cricket tongs, cricket cage, cricket food, calcium, temp and humidity gauge, and whatever greens we have left over (all of which, together, is well over $200). He's not aggressive (use to being handled), doesn't bite, and does well with our cats and.
