Are you looking for quality child care at affordable rates? Have you been trying to find a caregiver who actually enjoys caring for children? I provide child care in a home that is sparkling clean, is filled with love and patience, and has plenty of fun toys. I am a CNA with CPR and first aid training who has over 20 years of experience in this field. I am a responsible and intelligent individual who would love to take care of your child and provide a safe and loving environment for him to learn and grow. My rates are very reasonable and I am located just north of 19 mile between Clinton River Road and Schoenherr. If you are looking for quality child care please send an email or text. I look forward to speaking with you about your little one!!!
