ABOUT US

Brass Buckle Brand started out as a conversation between 4 friends. We wanted clothing that would look great and suit not only the hunter or horseman, but laid back country people like we are; the farmers, the fishers, all of us! 6 months later Brass Buckle Brand was born!

We are small US Company based out of Central Indiana. We are working Americans just like our customers and we strive to provide top of the line service and a product you will love.

Everytime you wear your BBB gear you help us spread our name and help our business grow. Thank you for your support!
