Hi my fellow musicians,

I'm posting this ad on Craigs List in need of some fellow musicians to put a serious band together with. I'm not looking for heavy-metal, or punk. My tastes fall more on the tastier flavored cooler side of jazzy, rock, swing, Motown, & the likes.

I'm in my 50's & have been playing drums & percussion since a wee Ladd.

I'm a serious seasoned player that's articulate & has finesse. I've all the right gear & abilities to more than satisfy my craft on hand & ready for whatever the gig requires of me to play.

I'm looking to play with same like serious seasoned musicians only, that wish to get out & play, have fun in doing so, but also making money.

Not looking to just waste time jamming with no real goals, or the ability to earn some cash doing what I enjoy & take very seriously doing.

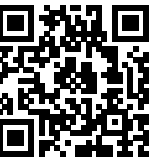

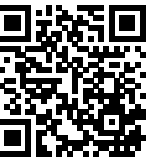

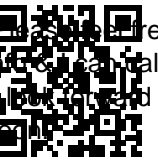

I live over in the Cornish/Kezar Falls, Maine area myself. So looking for others not terribly far away. Perhaps in the North Conway, NH area, or places within reasonable distance apart. That can make it a realistic venture for all involved.

I'm looking for others who also wish to seriously play & have the same like goals I've mentioned of here?

I'll look forward to your reply back to learn of your thoughts, desires, goals & intentions with regard to this matter.

I'm free to do what I want can send you a link. Or if you want to see your link or call on it, I'll be glad to send you a link. I'm glad to spend time with you probably perhaps we can get together to make something out of it.

Cheers to Ya All and Regards,
 Jeff
