Brand New still in the box!! Black 3 tier rack for holding flight cages. It will hold (3) 30x18 flight cages. These are the nice sturdy quality ones not the little cheapo ones. Stand retails for $70-$80 plus shipping. I'm selling it for $40 bucks. You can get a deal on amazon for (6) of the divided cages for $150.00 and free shipping (retail is $60-80 each on the cages). You could then buy another stand for $70.00 and have 6 divided cages (12 actual cages) on stands that roll with all the perches and food dishes for about $260 bucks. This is a total deal because that set up would cost you $520 if you bought it at any retail location. And that price is on the low side! Nobody around here ever has the flight cages in stock and finding the racks is near impossible. If you breed Finches, canaries, parakeets, lovebirds, cockatiels, conures, or quakers these cages would be awesome.

If you just need an extra stand for cages you already have then 40 bucks is a great deal!! it takes about 5 mins to assemble with just a regular screw
