

Lawn Mowing

Hi,

I'm looking for someone to come this Saturday to mow my lawn and trim the edges.....also looking for someone who can plant some flowers for me (maybe a dozen) if I set them where I'd like them to go and put some weed barrier and mulch down in my flower beds(2) and garden boxes (9) as well as on the side of my house. I'm going to be selling my house, so I'm hoping that whomever I find for this weekend will then be able to come every two weeks to mow and trim the edges.

If interested, please let me know what you would charge for the job this weekend and then what you would charge for each additional mow. My yard isn't very big, less than half an acre...typical small yard for a meridian home in the Solitude Place.
