Hey there!

I am leaving kinda early Sunday (the 24th), with my dog, in my full-size car to drive to the St. Pete/Tampa area of FL. It's a clean, comfortable, safe car & we're not bringing too much stuff with us. I made this trip last year & was lucky enough to find someone to ride to NC. He didn't have to take Greyhound, got door-to-door service, (his trip was three hours out of my way) & he slept the whole way. I got gas money & uh, well, I got gas money (;

This time, I have time restraints. It would be nice to find someone who may like to chat or share the driving, maybe. One way or both, but only if you're traveling light. I have camping equipment & stuff in storage that will be taking up lots of room, on the way back.

We can negotiate a flat fee, depending on your situation & needs. Thanks for reading & have a beautiful day. Safe travels!!
