Hi and thanks for reading! I am a 29-year-old professional female looking for a room, preferably furnished, beginning any time between September 1-5, 2015. A private bathroom would be great, but not required. I work in Lowell, MA and would prefer to be within 15 miles of that area - Nashua, Salem or somewhere in that radius would be ideal. I'm very clean, laid-back, financially stable, respectful and always pay my bills on time. My work hours vary quite a bit and there are some days when I am rarely home. When I'm not working, I enjoy traveling and relaxing with Netflix or a good book. I am fine with either a male or female roommate situation.

I do have a small dog, she is a Maltese mix. She is over 15 years old, never barks, and basically just sleeps all day. She rarely leaves my room or my side. I often bring her to work with me, so it is rare for her to be home alone and when she is, she's in my room with the door closed. I can provide pet references or any other information, but she's basically an old girl who wants to live out the rest of her days with her mom. I've had a hard time finding a room that accepts pets, but I can assure you that she isn't any trouble.

If you have a room available and think I might be a good fit as a roommate, please don't hesitate to contact!
