You are a well-educated, upscale beauty who seeks the best in life.

You are engaged with culture, style, current events, you are close to family & friends...and you enjoy adventure. You are employed or pursuing a degree. You are as comfortable in jeans & a t-shirt as you are in cocktail dress & heels as you are in just a garter belt & heels.

You are passionately pursuing life goals BUT you can also imagine a mature, successful gentleman benefactor in your life for discreet, exclusive and indulgent adventures.

We are a female-owned agency that specializes in these introductions. If you are inspired, please follow up with your age, height/weight. and in one sentence, tell us something unique about you.

Note: we do not work with girls who drug, smoke, or have extensive.
