Are you getting ready to launch your first crowdfunding campaign on kickstarter, go fund me, or indiegogo?

I have launched 6 successful kickstarter campaigns spanning the past three years, and now I want to use what I've learned to help your campaign succeed.

I will look over your campaign before you launch and give a constructive critique. I will let you know what you looks great, what could be done a little bit better, and what ideas just aren't working. I will give tips for increasing pledges, getting more backers, optimizing rewards, and much much more!

I look over each project individually - no canned responses! I truly want to help each campaign creator see their dreams materialize.

My services start at just $5, and with each package I also pledge at least $1 back to your campaign.

This consultation could save you hundreds or even thousands of dollars in mistakes, missteps or oversights. Lauching a crowdfunding campaign can be a daunting task, but I have been there. I know what works, what doesn't, and what a 'crowd' likes to see. I can take the guesswork out of setting up and managing your crowdfunding campaign so you can focus on spreading the word.

Thanks! Linda
