Hello my name is tia sorry about my spelling on my last add i have a new born baby in my arms taking all my attention lol anyways I have 4 kittens left from my litter of five which was an accidental litter. These fun loving kittens will be ready for their homes on may 25th! They are all litter box trained with almost no accidents now! Will have first 8wk shot and be dewarmed by the 25th. I can also do first bath before you pick up the kitten if you like. I am asking for a rehoming fee. The two kittens with no tails are more than the kittens with tails. Both parents are manx feel free to ask for any pictures of kittens or parents. The price for the kittens is to help me make back the money spent on shots and dewarming pills and extra litter and food since I have a new born baby I'm not working and borrowed it from rent money. Thankyou

P.s please only text me I can't read any emails you send back to me for some reason my number is
