Looking to rehome my cat Smushy. We got her off craigslist almost 4 years ago and we haven't regretted it. She is a outside cat at heart but unfortunately we can't let her out (neighborhood wont allow it). She has sucessfully tried every option to sneak out of the house and they are getting very very upset. We bought a leash for her, which she tolerated...at first. But then taking it off her she attacked me. So it's safe to say that she is not the most cuddly cat. She is probably not going to climb into your lap, or purr at your feet. She will follow you room to room, but pretend that you don't exist. She is very smart and we trained her to use a scratching post (with a treat system) in just a few days! And now she uses the post for treats when she is hungry lol. An ideal home for her would be one that she can come and go as she pleases, with mice to catch and a place where she can come for loving if she gets lonely. Please email me with a few things about yourself and your home life, as I do really care for her, and I don't want to send her to just.
