Hello,

I'm looking for a few writers to produce 1-2 articles a month on a prominent men's lifestyle website.

Our website covers anything and everything relevant to men including style, fitness, cooking, dating, relationships, finance, technology, gear, outdoors, whiskey, etc, etc, etc.

I am looking for writers who:

1. Are US based.
2. Have expertise in one of the above categories or any category relevant to men.
3. Are looking for an ongoing, long-term writer. I hope to find a two to three individuals who are able to produce at least 1 article per month for the foreseeable future.

If you meet the above criteria, and your writing style is a good fit for the site, our entry payment is $75 for a 2,500 word article.

Please do not respond with a resume or a pre-written blanket response. These don't tell me anything and I'll immediately delete them.

Please respond letting me know that you meet the above three criteria and send a few writing samples. I'm looking to hire someone as soon as possible and will respond to all emails that respond directly to this post.

Thank you and I look forward to hearing from you.
