Documentary Series Now Casting: Are YOU the person responsible for raising your siblings?

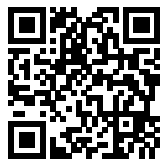

Are you really more of a mother or father than a sister or brother? Instead of bickering with your siblings over the TV remote are you the one who wakes them up for school in the morning? Have circumstances put the responsibility of parenting on you?

A reputable non-fiction TV company is looking for individuals who have full responsibility (legal, financial, etc) for raising their younger siblings. If this is the case, please reply with your name, location, phone number, email address, the full story of how & why you took on this responsibility, and a photo of you and your sibling. Whether this is the best thing you've ever done, or a decision you struggle with every day, we want to hear from!
