I have a sweet and very energetic 5-year-old Australian cattle dog who needs a good home. He's very smart, easily trainable, low-key during the day, but needs a good amount of exercise. (I'm in an extremely intense graduate program, and unfortunately I just can't keep up the 2-hour a day walks I was taking him on before entering the program. It breaks my heart to part with him, but I think he'd be happier elsewhere.)

He's an amazing frisbee player -- he can jump crazy-high! (See photos.) And he likes any kind of fetch game.

He'd probably be happiest with a really active person (or couple) with a good amount of free time, who loves to walk, run, hike, etc., and would enjoy taking him on these excursions.

He's up to date on his shots and in good health.

Small adoption fee of $20 to ensure a good placement.
